P.C.

. Heard the learned counsel for both the parties. The learned Judicial Magistrate, First Class at Pune by his order dated 29/1/2007 has convicted the accused and imposed the sentence of S.I. for six months and a fine of Rs.10,000/-. The grievance of Mr.Apte, the learned counsel for the applicant - original complainant is limited to the extent that the conviction order does not direct the accused to pay the compensation amount or the dishonoured cheque amount and if that be so, the impugned order cannot be called as order of acquittal.

. The learned counsel for the respondent no.1 on the other hand stated that the order of conviction dated 29/1/2007 passed in Criminal Case No.7343 of 2003 has already been challenged by filing an appeal before the Sessions Court. Hence the application is disposed with liberty to the applicant to file a criminal revision application before the Sessions Court against the impugned order limited to his grievance of compensation.
